

Scheme Terms & Conditions

1. The PrinterFood Preference Card ('the card') is a loyalty card designed to reward holders for shopping at PrinterFood's retail store ('The Scheme'). The card remains the property of Feenee Ltd and should be surrendered on request.
2. The card, when shown during a purchase, will entitle the customer to whom it is registered to offers such as are available at that time. As each card carries a unique identifier it must be produced at the time of sale.
3. Discounts and offers may be changed at any time.
4. The card scheme may be discontinued at any time.
5. The card remains registered to the customer who requested it and the benefits are not transferrable. Any customer requiring a card may request one if the scheme is current at the time of the request.
6. The card itself has no intrinsic monetary value. It is a means of identifying entitlement to the scheme only.
7. Mislaid or stolen cards cannot be replaced with accumulated scheme benefits, if any. A new card will be issued in these circumstances.
8. Online and account sales do not qualify for the benefits of the scheme.
9. OEM (Manufacturer branded) goods and services will not be included in the scheme normally but may be made available as short term offers.
10. Discounts under the scheme may not be combined with other offers that may run from time to time.
11. It is a condition of use that the holder accepts marketing information from Feenee Ltd and its trading companies. Such marketing will take the form of email and may also include text messages or postal mailings.
12. Benefits and offers are not available retrospectively. It remains the responsibility of the holder to ensure that they claim any discounts or offers within the time period advised in any marketing material.
13. The scheme is operated by Feenee Ltd. a company registered at 25 Laura Street, Sunderland, SR1 1PT.
14. Data collected by Feenee Ltd about the card holder is held securely on password protected computer systems. Data is not and will not be sold to or accessed by any third party.
15. Abbreviated conditions are printed on the card reverse.

The Worthwhile Loyalty Card!

The PrinterFood Preference Card rewards you for buying your home printer cartridges at our shop.

Generally, goods will carry two prices. One for the casual shopper and one for you!

From time to time special offers will be made available—some for card holders only, some with special discounts.

The card is only available for shop customers and must be used at the time of purchase.

The card has a nominal £2 charge for administration purposes and no further charges at all. This initial fee can be easily covered with your first purchase.

Ask for an application form now— your card is ready instantly!
